World Orphan Drug Congress 2018 6 8 November 2018
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. Tom’s father, the captain, has been skipping school that afternoon and has been absent from church and the President’s table and riding around with a lady. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

Tom goes out of the house in his new bank suit, and Tom and the new arrival are followed by the town’s boys. Tom is followed by the town’s boys, who want to be included. The town boys are the town’s outcasts and eventually become Tom’s most trusted friends.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of trade-in. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his work.

Tom comes home at suppertime. Mr. Sidewalk has a good deal to say about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly is very anxious about the missing Tom and wants to know when he will be skipped school that afternoon and what he will do. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but not for long. Tom’s half-brother, Muff Potter, has been seen about town.

Tom goes out of the house in the afternoon to buy some tobacco. When he comes home, the house is empty except for the tattered ghost. Aunt Polly is very anxious to know where he has been and what he has done. Tom tells her that he has been to the store and bought some tobacco, but Aunt Polly is not satisfied. She wants to know what he has done.
